

Alaska Craftsman Home Program

Other Educational and Training Institution

Address

3400 Spenard Rd, Ste. 9
Anchorage, AK 99503

Phone: 907.258.2247

Fax: 907.258.5352

Website

<http://www.achpalaska.com/>

Email

achpalaska@gmail.com

Alaska Home Craftsman Program offers training programs designed to teach concepts necessary to build energy-efficient homes. Some of the workshops include Advanced Cold Climate Building Techniques, Air Tightness for Energy Efficiency, and Building Energy Efficiency Standard (BEES).

Education Programs

Business, management, marketing, and related support service

Energy Conversations for New Construction Marketing

Construction trades

Advanced Cold Climate Home Building Techniques
Building Energy Efficiency Standard

Mechanic and repair technologies/technicians

Air Tightness & Ventilation
Airtightness for Energy Efficiency
Combustion Safety Training
Energy Efficient Doors and Windows
Energy Savings with Lighting and Appliances
Evaluating Doors and Windows
Finding and Fixing Air Leaks
First Steps: Building Science Basics
Healthy Indoor Air through Ventilation
Heating and Hot Water Choices
How to Choose a Contractor
Ice Dams
Insulating for Savings and Comfort
Insulation
Plugging Into Energy Savings
Understanding Heating Systems- Options for AHFC Programs
Ventilated Crawl Spaces; Best Practices
Ventilation

Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Research and Analysis Section
P.O. Box 115501
Juneau, Alaska 99811-5501
Phone: 907.465.4500, Fax: 907.523.9654
March 21, 2019