

Southeast Population and Economic Data Conference

– CONFERENCE AGENDA –

Andrew P. Kashevaroff Building, 395 Whittier Street, Lecture Hall

8:45 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Thursday, October 12, 2017

8:45-9:00 Welcome

Claire Imamura, Outreach Librarian – Alaska State Library

Liz Brooks, State Data Center Lead – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

9:00-9:45 Economic Data and Trends

Karinne Wiebold, Economist – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

- Economic trends and data resources for Juneau, Southeast, and Alaska
- Housing and cost-of-living information

9:45-10:10 Population Trends

Eric Sandberg, Demographer – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

- Population trends for Juneau, Southeast, and Alaska
- Migration and aging information

10:10-10:30 Population Data, Methods, and Resources

Eddie Hunsinger, State Demographer – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

- Methodology and importance of the decennial census
- Accessing Alaska population and migration data resources

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-12:00 The Road To 2020

Linda Akers Smith, Geographer – U.S. Census Bureau

- The 2020 Census and how to prepare your community
- Census Bureau geography programs

12:00-1:30 Lunch Break (on our own – no lunch provided)

1:30-1:50 Alaska State Library Census Resources

Freya Anderson, Head of Information Services – Alaska State Library

- Historical Census resources in print and microfilm

1:50-2:30 Beyond the Decennial

Heidi Crawford, Data Dissemination Specialist – U.S. Census Bureau

- American Community Survey and other Census Bureau programs and resources
- 2017 Economic Census and the value of the resultant information

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-3:10 Alaska Health Analytics Data

Rebecca Topol, Deputy Chief – Alaska Health Analytics and Vital Records Section

- Health Analytics & Vital Records Section data trends and resources

3:10-3:30 Recidivism and Employment

Yuancie Lee, Economist – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

- How jobs affect the likelihood of returning to prison

3:30-3:50 Alaska Education Data Resources

Brian Laurent, Data Management Supervisor – Alaska Department of Education and Early Development

- Education and Early Development data resources

3:50-4:00 Wrap-Up and Feedback

Eddie Hunsinger, State Demographer – Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development

Southeast Population and Economic Data Conference

– WORKSHOP AGENDA –

8:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Friday, October 13, 2017

8:30-8:40 Sign-in

Andrew P. Kashevaroff Building, 395 Whittier Street, Classroom

8:40-10:10 Your Community by the Numbers

Heidi Crawford, Data Dissemination Specialist – U.S. Census Bureau

Andrew P. Kashevaroff Building, 395 Whittier Street, Classroom

- Access Census Bureau data for small areas and communities
- Use income, poverty, race, ethnicity, and other measures to create community profiles, tables, and maps
- Tracking trends with Census data

10:10-10:30 Break

10:30-12:00 Alaska Native Statistics Workshop

Heidi Crawford, Data Dissemination Specialist – U.S. Census Bureau

Andrew P. Kashevaroff Building, 395 Whittier Street, Classroom

- Demographic and socioeconomic statistics for Alaska Native alone or in combination with another race

Concurrent

8:30-12:00 Local Update of Census Addresses (LUCA) Technical Training

Linda Akers Smith, Geographer – U.S. Census Bureau

State Office Building, 333 Willoughby Avenue, 10th Floor Computer Lab

- Technical training for LUCA participants